

New Year's Grammar & Opposites

A2

1 ASK YOUR CLASSMATE & WRITE THE OPPOSITES IN THE CORRECT TENSE.

STUDENT A

What was he/she like last year?	What will he/she be like this year?
	Jack will be hardworking.
	Emily was shy.
	Jared will be patient.
	Stacy was unfriendly.
	Adam will be fit.
	Kate was impolite.
	Chris will be cheerful.
	Gina was quiet.

STUDENT B

What was he/she like last year?	What will he/she be like this year?
	Jack was lazy.
	Emily will be confident.
	Jared was impatient.
	Stacy will be friendly.
	Adam was unhealthy.
	Kate will be polite.
	Chris was grumpy.
	Gina will be talkative.

New Year's Reading

A2+

resolutions

goal

practise

exercise

kind

speak fluently

1

READ THE RESOLUTIONS AND WRITE THE NAMES.

Ava would like to be fitter.

Emma wants to be more intelligent.

Jack wants to be faster.

Sophia will try to be a nicer person.

Noah is going to be a better student.

Ethan wants to speak a foreign language more fluently.

Hi! My name is _____. This year I'd like to read more books this year to become a smarter person. Last year, I spent too much time on my phone. My goal is to read one book every month and try different kinds, like mystery and science fiction.

What's up?! My name is _____. I want to speak better Spanish this year. I'll practise every day, listen to Spanish music, and try speaking with others. My goal is to have a simple conversation in Spanish with a native speaker.

What's up?! My name is _____. This year, I want to get better at football. I plan to train harder and focus on becoming faster and a better player. My goal is to join the school team before the year ends.

Hi! My name is _____. My goal is to eat healthier and exercise more. I want to feel strong and have more energy. I'll try to drink more water, eat fruits and vegetables, and do yoga twice a week.

Hey! My name is _____. I want to be kinder to people. Sometimes, I say things without thinking, and I don't want to hurt anyone's feelings. My resolution is to think before I speak and help others when I can.

Hello! My name is _____. I want to study harder and get better grades this year. I'll spend more time studying for tests and always do my homework. I'll also focus more in class and listen carefully to the teachers.